VOTING RIGHTS

Article 17

Each Member of the IDF as defined in Article 6.1 has one vote. The other categories of members as defined in Article 6 have no voting right.

Article 18

At any Plenary Assembly, each Member shall be represented by one delegate who may be assisted by one or two advisors.

A Member which has not paid its dues in full prior to the Plenary Assembly is not entitled to vote.

Any Member having voting rights may be represented by the delegate of another Member being duly entitled to vote by means of a written proxy. One delegate may not represent more than two other Members at the same time.

QUORUM

Article 19

The Plenary Assembly shall pass its resolutions and carry out its elections with an absolute majority of the votes of the Members present or represented, unless mandatory law or the Statutes provides otherwise.

Resolutions of the Plenary Assembly concerning changes and amendments of the Statutes shall require the approval of at least two thirds of the votes of the Members present or represented.

Bye-laws to the Statutes, which shall be identified in the Statutes as "Bye-Laws to the IDF Statutes", may be added or amended by an absolute majority of the Members present or represented.

TAKING OF DECISIONS

Article 20

Voting at the Plenary Assembly is conducted by show of hands or electronic vote. Upon the request of one fifth of the Members present, any vote must be taken by secret written ballot.

Elections shall always be decided by secret written ballot. The election process is described in the relevant document approved by the Plenary Assembly. The Executive Board will establish an Electoral Committee to assume certain duties related to elections. The Electoral Committee members will be proposed by the Executive Board and appointed by the Plenary Assembly one year ahead of the elections.

AGENDA AND THE RIGHT TO INTRODUCE PROPOSALS

Article 21

Items for inclusion in the Agenda of any Plenary Assembly may be presented by:

- a) the Executive Board
- b) any Member

The provisional Agenda with short explanation of the topics shall be distributed two months before the date of the PA. Items presented by IDF Members are to be sent to the IDF Executive Board at least six weeks before the Plenary Assembly. The full Agenda with all documents has to be sent to all members at least 28 days before the PA.

Continental Members, Developing Continental Members and Observer Members are entitled to speak, but not to present motions to the Plenary Assembly, in accordance to the relevant regulations.

Article 22

Upon affirmative vote of no less than 2/3 of the Members being present and having voting rights, the Plenary Assembly itself may add items to the agenda of any meeting.

EXTRAORDINARY PLENARY ASSEMBLY

Article 23

The Executive Board may at any time call an extraordinary Plenary Assembly.

At the written request of the majority of the Members entitled to vote, the Executive Board shall convene an extraordinary Plenary Assembly within 3 months of receipt of such request. The request must be substantiated and accompanied by a proposal for the agenda.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Article 24

The Executive Board of IDF consists of the following officers:

- President/IDF
- First Vice-Presidents/IDF
- Second Vice-Presidents/IDF
- General Secretary/IDF

as well as of:

- 1 (one) representative elected by each of the five Continental Councils (created by each national federation of a single continent according the IOC divisions of the continent) or, if not existing or available members in the continent, by all the members of IDF (Continental representative are Asia, Africa, Europe, Panamerica, Oceania)

- 1 (one) female representative elected by the Athletes' Commission
- 1 (one) male representative elected by the Athletes' Commission
- 1 (one) female head of the women in sport commission, elected by the members
- 1 (one) board member with the responsibility to the parasport

All elected members of the Executive Board will sign and be subject to the IDF Charter and IDF Code of Conduct. Therefore, all Executive Board members must have a fiduciary responsibility to the IDF and breach of that fiduciary responsibility could result in disciplinary actions.

The board can create a Presidency delegating to it some or all the powers of the executive board. At the same time, under the approval of the Assembly, the board can appoint a CEO (Chief Executive Officer) delegating to the CEO some or all the power assigned to the Executive board.

Article 25

Candidates standing for election to any post in the Executive Board (with the exception of the representatives of the Athletes and representatives of the Continental Councils) shall be presented by the Member association of the country where he/she holds citizenship.

The members of the Executive Board (with the exception of the representatives of the Athletes and representatives of the Continental Councils) are elected by the Plenary Assembly for a term of four years.

Executive Board members are eligible for a maximum of three terms.

Article 26

The Executive Board is responsible for implementing all the policy directives and decisions made by the Plenary Assembly. This includes in particular:

- a) to prepare the agenda of the Plenary Assembly meetings;
- b) to prepare the annual accounts (consisting of the profit and loss statement and the balance sheet);
- c) to make recommendations to the Plenary Assembly about:
 - a. the long-term strategies of the IDF;
 - b. regulations and rules to be decided by the Plenary Assembly;
 - c. the candidates to be appointed by the Plenary Assembly as members of Anti-doping, Ethics, Disciplinary and Appeals Commissions;
 - d. the admission and expulsion of Member associations;
- d) to decide about the composition and functioning of the Sport Department;
- e) to set up the calendar of IDF approved competitions and to coordinate schedules of International and Continental competitions;
- f) to appoint President and members of the Medical Commission;
- g) to decide the terms and conditions of contracts between the IDF and organizers of IDF approved competitions;
- h) to recommend any proposed changes to the IDF Statutes;
- i) to appoint and remove persons (employees) entrusted with the management of IDF's day-to-day operations;
- j) to make recommendations on the terms and conditions of contracts to be concluded with third parties outside IDF;
- k) to decide on membership issues between Plenary Assembly meetings;
- l) to decide the official means of information of the IDF;
- m) to control IDF finances;
- n) to appoint an IDF delegate for IDF events as necessary;
- o) to initiate and undertake negotiations with third parties.

All statements and contracts which bind the IDF must be signed by the President and the General Secretary, or one Vice-President. In case of absence, the President may be replaced by one Vice-President.

The Executive Board is responsible for the functioning of the administrative office of the IDF. All permanent employees are hired by the Executive Board and employed in accordance with the annual budget.

Article 27

The Executive Board meets as often as necessary, but not less than once every year. Board meetings may be held by attendance in person or via telephone and/or conferencing.

The Board meetings are convened by the President or at the request of the majority of its members.

Article 28

The Agenda for the Executive Board meetings is prepared by the Steering Committee. However, any member of the Executive Board is entitled to present proposals for the agenda. Such proposals must be submitted, with relevant documentation, at least one month before the date set for any Executive Board meeting. The full agenda shall be sent by the Steering Committee to the Executive Board members at least two weeks prior to the meeting date.

Article 29

Every member of the Executive Board has one vote. All decisions of the Executive Board are taken by majority of the members present, and no voting rights may be exercised by proxy. The quorum of the Executive Board consists of a majority of its members. In case of tie, the President's vote is the casting vote.

THE PRESIDENT

Article 30

The President chairs all meetings of the Plenary Assembly, the Executive Board. He represents the sport in all important matters, especially those pertaining to the IOC and other international organizations.

The President may, from time to time, delegate various aspects of IDF management to other members of the Executive Board.

The President, or a Board member designated by the President, is entitled to attend and participate in all Commission meetings, but without vote.

Article 31

If the President is prevented from attending a meeting of the Executive Board or a Plenary Assembly, the Executive Board will appoint one of the Vice Presidents to chair those meetings.

In case of death or disability of the President, the Vice-President appointed by the Executive Board shall assume the President's duties until the next Plenary Assembly. Should the Vice-President in turn be unable to fulfil his/her obligations, the Treasurer/Vice President and/or the member of the Executive Board who has served on the Executive Board the longest shall assume his/her duties and convene an Extraordinary Plenary Assembly in order to elect appropriate replacements.

CONTINENTAL COUNCILS (COMMISSION)

Article 32

Continental Councils are responsible for the administration, development and furtherance of competition Soft Darts and e-Darts in a specific continent or geographic area. The Continental Councils shall comply with and enforce the rules and regulations of the IDF and co-operate with IDF bodies. They organize continental championships and other competitions in their area.

The Continental Councils are:

- Africa
- Asia
- Europe
- Pan America
- Oceania

The Statutes and Regulations of the Continental Councils must be submitted to the Executive Board for approval and will not come into effect until they have received such approval.

Continental Councils can be elected by all the general assembly, in case there is no national federation in the continent, or elected, in case there are more than one member in the continent. The board will decide, before the election at the AGM, how many council members are going to be elected from a minimum of three (3) and a maximum of seven (7).

Continental commissions can be cancelled by the executive board of IDF with a vote decision and, in this case, the board can appoint a commissioner that will be the elected executive board member representing the continent in the board. He will take the proper decision under the approval of the IDF executive board.

Ex officio, the secretary general of IDF is member of all the continental commission. The IDF executive board can block and change all the decision of the continental commission.

Continental commissions can have a stand alone bank account in order to manage their assets according to IDF guidelines.

SPORT DEPARTMENT

Article 33

The Sport Department will form the Technical Commissions related to sport management, such as sport regulations, calendar, Athletes and Entourage, Athletes' health, officials, etc.

These Technical Commissions are subject to approval by the Executive Board.

Members of these Commissions are proposed by Member associations. Their membership expires at end of the term of the Executive Board.

One member of each Commission is appointed by the Athletes' Commission.

Each Commission is directed by one of its members (Director), who is appointed by the Executive Board.

COMMISSIONS AND WORKING GROUPS

Article 34

The President, in accordance with the Executive Board, may create permanent or other standing or ad hoc commissions and working groups whenever it appears necessary, for the purpose of advising the Plenary Assembly, the Executive Board or the President.

ANTI-DOPING, ETHICS, DISCIPLINARY, AND APPEALS COMMISSIONS, MEDICAL COMMISSION AND RULES

Article 35

The function of the Anti-Doping Commission is to ensure that the IDF complies with the World Anti-Doping Code. Its rules will comply with the World Anti-Doping Code.

The Ethics Commission intends to protect and encourage ethical values in all IDF. The Ethics Commission addresses issues referred to it by the IDF President. It can also propose issues for consideration to the IDF President or the IDF Executive Board following information received directly or indirectly. The Ethics Commission will consider cases resulting from a breach of the IDF Code of Conduct or Charter and elected members of the IDF. They can recommend action to the IDF President, who may address the Disciplinary Commission.

The function of the Disciplinary Commission is to investigate and take appropriate action following any complaint concerning breach of rules (including the IDF Anti-Doping Rules) or misconduct.

The function of the Appeals Commission is to decide appeals from decisions taken by the Disciplinary Commission (except in doping cases, where the appeal will be made to the Court of Arbitration for Sport).

Rules concerning these Commissions and their rules are set out in a regulation made by the Plenary Assembly.

The Ethics Commission Rules and composition are defined in the relevant document approved by the IDF Executive Board, while members are appointed by the IDF Plenary Assembly.

Decisions of the Disciplinary Commission in doping cases and decisions of the Appeal Commission may be appealed to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (in Lausanne, Switzerland). The procedure before the Court of Arbitration for Sport takes place according to its regulations. The decision of the International Court of Arbitration for Sport will be final and there will be no further appeal from it.

Medical Commission Rules and composition are defined in the relevant document approved by the IDF Executive Board.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Article 36

Disputes arising under the IDF Statutes or otherwise, will be dealt with under the procedure and rules set out in the Disciplinary and Appeals Rules.

The final determination of a dispute can be appealed to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (in Lausanne, Switzerland).

The procedure before the Court of Arbitration for Sport takes place according to its regulations.

The decision of the Court of Arbitration for Sport will be final and there will be no further appeal from it.

ATHLETES' COMMISSION

Article 37

The Athletes' Commission provides a permanent liaison between active athletes and the IDF. One female and one male representatives, not from the same country, appointed by the Athletes' Commission are elected by the Plenary Assembly as members of the Executive Board.

Composition and functioning of the Athletes' Commission are described in the relevant regulations as approved by the Plenary Assembly.

If no regulations is approved the members will decide from a list of the athletes candidates from the different countries.

PARASPORT COMMISSION

Article 38

Composition and functioning of the Para Soft Darts and e-Darts Commission are described in the relevant regulations as approved by the Plenary Assembly.

VI. FINANCES

Article 39

The IDF will finance its own activities through sources such as:

- a) Membership and subscription fees of its members;
- b) The organization and authorization of Competitions, competitor entry fees, and any other fees relating to official competitions;
- c) Any other sources that may be available (sponsorships, TV rights, donations, etc.).

Article 40

The individuals who serve on the IDF bodies are volunteers. However, considering the work carried out, some of them are entitled to receive financial compensations presented in the related policy approved by the Executive Board. The expenses of the Executive Board and the Commissions are borne by the IDF according to regulations of the Executive Board. Within approved budgets, the Plenary Assembly of the IDF and the Executive Board are empowered to authorize payment of fees and expenses to individuals and/or organizations to provide specific professional service or advice.

Article 41

The financial year of the IDF shall run from the 1st January to the 31st December annually.

Article 42

The Plenary Assembly of the IDF shall receive and approve annual budgets detailing the forecast income from all sources and the proposed annual expenditure and shall establish and maintain financial accounting system and produce annual accounts audited by the accredited Auditor, appointed by the Plenary Assembly of the IDF, meeting international recognized standards.

Article 43

Only the assets of the IDF can be used to settle IDF liabilities and obligations. Any liability of the Member Associations is excluded.

Article 44

The basic currency for annual accounting purposes will be the Euro.

VII. SYMBOLS AND LOGOS

Article 45

The symbols, logos and their production, as well as the name and the abbreviation "IDF" are the exclusive property of the IDF and may not be used without its consent.

VIII. DISSOLUTION OF IDF

Article 46

A three-quarter majority of the IDF members may propose the dissolution of the IDF. The dissolution becomes effective on approval of the proposal by a three-quarter majority at the Plenary Assembly, providing that at least two third of the members entitled to vote are present or represented at the Plenary Assembly. The disposal of the assets of the IDF shall be decided by the Plenary Assembly dissolving the IDF and shall be in keeping with the aims of the IDF and transferred to a tax exempt Swiss legal entity.

IDF BYE-LAWS

Bye-law to Article 2

Purposes
